Journal of Modern Hellenism is published annually for the Greek Studies Program of Hellenic College and for the Center for Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies of Queens College of the City University of New York which bear full editorial responsibility for its content.

The purpose of the Journal is to reflect activities of both institutions in promoting scholarly work on the history, language, institutions, and culture of the Greek people from the late Byzantine period to the present. The articles which appear in the Journal of Modern Hellenism are those prepared by the faculty of the Greek Studies Program of Hellenic College and of the Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies Program of Queens College of the City University of New York, and those of outside scholars offered in seminars, conferences, and special lectures sponsored by either Hellenic College or Queens College, CUNY.

The views expressed in this publication are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the sponsoring institutions.
